Today, multi-platinum, three-time GRAMMY Award-winning artist Olivia Rodrigo announced The Unraveled Tour, a massive 65-date run across North America, Europe, and the UK. The tour supports her third studio album, you seem pretty sad for a girl so in love, out June 12, 2026 via Geffen Records. Promoted by Live Nation, the global tour kicks off Friday, September 25 in Hartford, CT at PeoplesBank Arena and features multi-night plays in cities around the world including Washington, DC, Chicago, Atlanta, Nashville, Vancouver, Oakland, Las Vegas, Stockholm, Paris, Milan, and more.

The tour will also include extended outings in key markets, with four nights at Los Angeles' Intuit Dome, Brooklyn's Barclays Center, and London's The O2. Special guests Devon Again, Die Spitz, Grace Ives, The Last Dinner Party, and Wolf Alice will join Olivia on select dates.

The Unraveled Tour follows the success of Olivia Rodrigo's 2022 debut, The SOUR Tour, and her first headline arena run, the GUTS world tour, which spanned more than 60 cities across 20+ countries throughout 2024 and 2025. The GUTS world tour marked her largest tour to date, with 95 sold-out shows and over 1.4 million fans in attendance, including performances at iconic venues such as Madison Square Garden, Kia Forum, and Sportpaleis. Notably, Billboard also named Olivia 'Touring Artist of the Year' in 2024.

"drop dead", the first song released from you seem pretty sad for a girl so in love, debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart, making Rodrigo the first artist to debut the lead singles from all of her studio albums at No. 1 on the Hot 100. Rodrigo is also the only artist born this century with multiple Hot 100 No. 1s ("drop dead", "vampire", "good 4 u", "drivers license"). you seem pretty sad for a girl so in love offers a mature, expansive and inspired sound from Rodrigo, while still grounded in the tenderness and originality of her beloved previous work.

Rodrigo is set to appear on The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon tonight (April 30), and will make her hosting debut with double duty on Saturday Night Live this weekend on May 2.

About Olivia Rodrigo

GRAMMY-award winning, multi-platinum selling singer-songwriter Olivia Rodrigo is one of the most influential artists of today. After shattering records with her chart-topping, 6x Platinum debut album SOUR – the fastest album in history to have all of its songs certified RIAA Platinum or higher – 3x GRAMMY® Award winning singer-songwriter Olivia Rodrigo made a monumental return with her sophomore album GUTS, revealing newly heightened sophistication as a vocalist and lyricist. This year, Rodrigo is set to release her third studio album, you seem pretty sad for a girl so in love, on June 12th. The first single, drop dead, was released on Friday, April 17th.

Hailed by The New York Times as “a songwriter of rather astonishing purity” Rodrigo has received fourteen GRAMMY® Award nominations including nods for Album of the Year, Song of the Year, and Record of the Year for her work on both SOUR and GUTS. She took home awards for Best New Artist, Best Pop Vocal Album and Best Pop Solo Performance at the 64th GRAMMY® Awards. She was named New Artist of the Year at the American Music Awards, Woman of the Year at Billboard’s 2022 Women in Music Awards and Songwriter of the Year at both the ASCAP Pop Music Awards and Variety Hitmakers. She has also received seven Billboard Awards, a Brit, a Juno, and an NME Award while “Olivia Rodrigo: driving home 2 u (a SOUR film)” won Best Music Documentary honors at the 2022 MTV Movie & TV Awards.

SOUR entered the Billboard 200 at No. 1 and would go on to become the longest-running debut album in the chart’s top 10 of the 21st century—and the first to spend an entire year in the upper echelon. SOUR also entered the charts at No. 1 in the U.K., Canada, Ireland, Norway, Holland, Sweden, Australia, and New Zealand. Upon release, SOUR scored the most U.S. audio streams for a female debut album ever and broke the record for the most-streamed album in a week by a female artist on Spotify. In 2022, she kicked off her first-ever world tour—a sold-out run that took her to upwards of 40 cities across North America and Europe.

Praised as an “instant classic” by Rolling Stone, Rodrigo’s sophomore album GUTS debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard 200, coinciding with lead single “vampire” returning to the top spot on the Billboard Hot 100 and Rodrigo’s No. 1 ranking on the Artist 100, thereby giving her a chart triple. Rodrigo is the first female artist in nearly a decade to debut her first two albums atop the Billboard 200 and the youngest artist in Hot 100 history to debut three hits at No. 1 (“vampire” and SOUR’s “drivers license” and “good 4 u”). GUTS’ remaining 11 tracks charted in the top 40 of the Hot 100. GUTS topped the album charts in over 13 countries, including the UK.

In 2024, Rodrigo embarked on her second world tour – GUTS World Tour, which wrapped in the summer of 2025 after 100 sold-out headline shows in 64 cities across more than 21 countries. She donated a portion from her net proceeds from the GUTS World Tour to charities around the globe. The donation was distributed via Rodrigo’s Fund 4 Good – a global initiative committed to building an equitable and just future for all women and girls through direct support of community-based non-profits that champion girls’ education, support reproductive rights and prevent gender-based violence. Rodrigo was named Billboard’s 2024 Touring Artist of the Year after the massive global success of her GUTS World Tour.

Before the year ended, Rodrigo achieved another career milestone with the release of her first contribution to a film soundtrack: “Can’t Catch Me Now” from The Hunger Games: The Ballad of Songbirds & Snakes (Music From & Inspired By). The song, nominated for a GRAMMY® Award for Best Song Written For Visual Media, won a 2023 Hollywood Music In Media Award for SciFi/Fantasy Film, a 2024 SCL Award for Outstanding Original Song For A Dramatic Or Documentary Visual Media Production and was shortlisted for the 2024 Oscars.

In 2025, Rodrigo continued to tour through South America, performing at her first ever stadium in Curitiba, Brazil. Dominating the festival circuit, Rodrigo performed at Governors Ball Music Festival in New York City, bringing generations together with special guests such as David Byrne. Rodrigo made history as the second youngest person ever to headline Glastonbury, bringing out iconic special guest Robert Smith of The Cure, and now her LIVE FROM GLASTONBURY (A BBC RECORDING), an album that captures her headline set from the renowned UK festival is available for pre-order. After officially wrapping her GUTS world tour in the summer, Rodrigo joined forces with Feist for a stripped-back acoustic performance of “We’re Going to Be Friends” to honor The White Stripes at the 2025 Rock & Roll Hall of Fame induction ceremony that Fall.
